As per decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Vishwa Jagriti Mission Through President vs
Central Govt. Th. Cabinet Secretary & Ors.
Dated 4th May, 2001

“Ragging is banned in the college and any one indulging in ragging is likely to be punished appropriately with punishment that may include expulsion from the institution, suspension from the institution or classes for a limited period or fine with a public apology. The punishment may also take the shape of : (i) withholding scholarships or other benefits (ii) debarring from representation in events (iii) withholding results (iv) suspension or expulsion from hostel or mess, and the like.”

Order of the Vice-Chancellor in pursuance of Ordinance XV-C

Where incident(s) of ragging are reported to the Vice-Chancellor by any authority under this ordinance, the student(s) involved in ragging, shall be expelled for a specified term designated in the order, non-students involved in reports of ragging will be proceeded with under the criminal law of India; they will also be rendered ineligible for a period of five years from seeking enrolment in any of the institutions of the University of Delhi. Students against whom necessary action is taken this note, will be given post-decisional hearing, with strict adherence to the rules of natural justice.”

Further, as per the order of the Honorable Supreme Court of India (order IA No. 5/2007 in SLP No. to 24295/2004 dated 16-05-2007), any students found indulging in any act of ragging shall be subject to the following punishment.

- a. The punishment to be meted out has to be exemplary and justifiably harsh to act as a deterrent against recurrence of such incidents.
- b. Every single incident of ragging where the victim or his parent/guardian or the Head of institution is not satisfied with the institutional arrangement for action, a First Information Report must be filed without exception by the institutional authorities with the local police authorities. Any failure on the part of the institutional authority or negligence or deliberate delay in lodging the FIR with the local police shall be construed to be an act of culpable negligence on the part of the institutional authority. If any victim or his parent/guardian of ragging intends to file FIR directly with the police, that will not absolve the institutional authority from the requirement of filing the FIR.
- c. Courts should make an effort to ensure that cases involving ragging are taken up on a priority basis to send the correct message that ragging is not only to be discouraged but also to be dealt with sternness.

Undertaking:

I declare that I shall submit myself to the disciplinary action taken by the College/University authority as well as the police and any Court of Law, who may be vested with powers to stop ragging as per the Supreme Court of India's Judgement.
